MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION.

BOOKS AND STUDIES.

The following are the Books used in the several departments of study :

I. Common English Branches.

Colburn's First Lessons ; Smith's Arithmetic ; Greene's and Murray's Grammar ; Malte Brun's Geography ; Preston's Book-keeping.

II. Mathematics.

Colburn's and Smyth's Algebra ; Nulty's Geometry ; Smyth's Trigonometry ; Smyth's Analytic Geometry ; Flint's or Gummere's Surveying.

III. Languages.

LATIN — Goodrich's Lessons ; Gould's Grammar ; Jacobs' Reader ; Vita Washingtonii ; Anthon's Sallust ; Cicero's Select Orations ; Gould's Ovid ; Virgil ; Folsom's Livy ; New Latin Tutor ; Anthon's Classical Dictionary ; Adams's Roman Antiquities.

GREEK — Goodrich's Lessons ; Fisk's Grammar ; Jacob's Reader ; Testament ; Xenophon ; Herodotus ; Donnegan's Lexicon.

FRENCH — Longfellow's Grammar ; Bolmar's Phrases ; Parley's Tales ; Traducteur Français; Telemaque; Proverbes Dramatiques; Fontaine's Fables ; Voltaire's Henriade ; Boyer's Dictionary.

SPANISH — Cubi's Grammar ; Novelas Espanolas ; El Traductor Espanol ; Don Quijote ; Neuman's Dictionary.

ITALIAN — Longfellow's and Surault's Grammar; Novellieri Italiani; Boccaccio's Decamerone, (extracts;) Graglia's Dictionary.

Classes will commence Greek, Latin and French at the beginning of every Term.

IV. Natural Science.

Lincoln's Botany; Comstock's Natural Philosophy; Comstock's Chemistry; Burritt's Geography of the Heavens; Smellie's Philosophy of Natural History.

V. Political Science.

Sullivan's Political Class Book; Stanbury's Catechism on the Constitution; Worcester's General History; Newman's Political Economy; Rawle's View of the American Constitution.

VI. Mental Science and Belles-Lettres.

Newman's Rhetoric; Hedge's Logic; Abercrombie's Intellectual Powers; Abercrombie's Moral Feelings; Upham's Mental Philosophy; Wayland's Moral Science.

The Books used in all the Departments may be obtained at the Bookstores in the Village on liberal terms.

The number attending to several of the more important branches the present term, is as follows:

STUDIES.		STUDIES.
Greek,	7	Algebra,	14
Latin,	35	Mental Philosophy,	45
French,	54	Natural Philosophy,	41
Spanish,	4	Chemistry,	33
Italian,	7	Natural History,	24
Botany,	22	Drawing,	40
History,	46	Music,	22

It is very important that every Student should be here at the commencement of the term, as a classification is then made which is afterwards inconvenient to change, and as classes in the more important departments of study, will not, under ordinary circumstances, commence at any other time. Students will be received, however, at any time; and admitted to such classes as they may be found qualified to enter; but in such cases, no Student will be charged less than the Tuition of half a Quarter.

FEMALE DEPARTMENT.

The Young Ladies occupy separate rooms, but receive instruction from the Teachers of both departments, in all the studies which may suit their wishes; and are admitted to all lectures and experiments on the Natural Sciences. Drawing, Painting and Music receive especial attention. Instruction is given on the Piano Forte by an experienced and accomplished Teacher, who resides near the Institution.

GENERAL EXERCISES.

Reading and Spelling on Saturday forenoon by all the Students. Declamations once in two weeks, in the Male Department. Compositions once in two weeks, by all the Students. Lectures on Natural Sciences twice a week, by the Principal. Examinations at the close of each Term, in all the studies of that Term.

NOTE. By the liberality of the Trustees, an excellent Philosophical, Chemical and Astronomical Apparatus has been procured for the purpose of illustration and experiment.

TERMS & VACATIONS.

The Academic year is divided into two Terms, of twenty two weeks each, commencing on the first Mondays of October and April, each preceded by a Vacation of four weeks, Each Term is divided into two quarters, of eleven weeks each, without any Vacation between them.

EXPENSES.

do. in higher branches	7 00
Lectures on Natural Philosophy and Chemistry,	1 00
Instruction in Music,	6 00
Use of Piano,	1 00

No charge is made for wood, lights, reciting rooms, &c.

Damages to the building and furniture are charged to the individuals who commit them.

The price of board in good families is about $2 per week.

Tuition is required to be paid in advance, at the beginning of each quarter. But if a Student leave the school for sufficient reason, at or before the middle of the quarter, one half will be refunded.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

The hours of study and recitation are from 9 to 12 o'clock, A. M. and from 2 to 5, P. M. During these hours, all the Students, except those who may have permission to study at their Boarding places, are required to be present in their seats. And those who study at their Boarding places are required to observe the same hours, and punctually to attend their recitations at the appointed times.

No whispering, loud talking, or other irregularities of conduct are allowed during the hours of study and recitation.

All the Students are expected regularly to attend worship on the Sabbath, at such places as their parents or guardians may designate.

BUILDING.

The Seminary Building is situated in a retired, neat, and beautiful part of the Village, and contains two large and commodious rooms, one for Males, the other for Females, with reciting rooms and a lecture room adjoining them.
